

Excellency,

27 March 2025

I have the honour to refer to my letter dated 15 January 2025, informing Member States of the roadmap for an iterative, open, transparent, participatory and inclusive consultation on the draft ministerial declaration of the seventh session of the United Nations Environment Assembly (UNEA-7).

I wish to thank the Member States and observers, including the major groups and stakeholders, who provided input to the zero draft ministerial declaration. In this regard, I also have the honour to circulate the zero draft of the ministerial declaration of UNEA-7 and invite all Member States and observers, including the major groups and stakeholders, to the first intergovernmental consultations to be held on Tuesday, 15 April 2025, from 14:00 to 17:00 (Nairobi time - GMT+3) at the United Nations Office at Nairobi, in Conference Room 4 and online through this link. This first intergovernmental consultations will allow the Presidency to hear initial comments and reflections from Member States and observers on the zero draft. I would like to emphasize the importance of the engagement of UNEA focal points in this intergovernmental consultations, particularly from those Member States not represented in Nairobi.

I further have the honour to invite Member States and observers to provide written comments on the zero draft by Wednesday, 30 April 2025, to the secretariat of the United Nations Environment Programme. All written comments received will be made available online on the UNEA-7 website under the “Documents & Resources” tab (Inputs to the Ministerial Declaration).

I look forward to your engagement in this important process.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

H. E. Mr. Abdullah Bin Ali Al-Amri
President of the United Nations Environment
Assembly

To:
Ministers responsible for the Environment
Members of the Committee of Permanent Representatives