

Modalities for the inclusive multi-stakeholder engagement

1. Invites observers' to make written submissions in relation to the work of the intergovernmental negotiating committee, if possible, prior to any deadline for written submissions of Members, to inform negotiations for the international legally binding instrument on plastic pollution, including in the marine environment.
2. Requests the Secretariat, subject to the availability of financial resources, to convene a virtual multi-stakeholder dialogue during the intergovernmental negotiating committee intersessional period to inform the work of each INC.
3. Requests the Secretariat to prepare a report on the discussions at the dialogue referred to above with a view to presenting the report at the plenary meeting of the intergovernmental negotiating committee.
4. Requests the Secretariat, subject to the availability of dedicated financial resources, to convene, in conjunction with the intergovernmental negotiating committee sessions, a multi-stakeholder forum, that is open to all stakeholders for the exchange of information relevant to the agenda of the meeting.
5. Invites members and observers to consider organizing thematic events in order to inform negotiations for the international legally binding instrument on plastic pollution, including in the marine environment, summaries of which could be presented during the multi-stakeholder forum.
6. Urges that opportunities for stakeholder engagement referred to in paragraphs above be inclusive and communicated to all in clear and transparent manner.
